No President’s message this month....

Please remember Guild member Dona Smith and her family in your prayers. Dona lost her son to a motorcycle accident this past week and she will be out for a few weeks. This sad news is in addition to a lot of other losses that Dona has had the past two years. She needs our support and prayers....

Hot Springs Area Quilt Guild – Minutes – July 28th, 2011

The meeting was held in the Fordyce Room at National Park Hospital. President Julie Schrader called the meeting to order at 6pm.

Mary Ann Kerr, food coordinator thanked all the members who provided our refreshments for the evening.

The good news is that our microphone is working, with an appreciative ovation from all. The wireless microphone will probably be at our next meeting.

Beth Wynn, chairperson of the quilt show congratulated all the committees who worked so hard and gave us a very successful quilt show. There have been wonderful comments from so many people who attended. We also thank all the volunteers who helped in many areas. The pick-up of quilts went much smoother this year with a new system in place.

Dottie Atkins -membership- announced that we had 37 members present and one visitor. Wanda Mahn and Janice Seltzer joined this evening and received their membership booklets. We welcome both of you!

Jan Martin has been in the hospital and is now reported to be at home and doing well.

3rd Wednesday coordinator Clarice Marker announced they have been working on making Quilts of Valor and using the disappearing 9-patch for some of the patterns. A sweatshirt jacket may be started in September. She will have further information on this class.

Norma Welch reported on the Patch Exchange and also brought Saline County's Donation Quilt. She sold tickets for it and said the drawing will be in October.

Carol Frazier presented Norma McKinnon from Hickory Hill Quilt Shop as our program for the evening. Norma spoke about many small projects to make that still include quilting skills. Many quilters enjoy making something that does not take too long to make. She showed items such as purses, tote bags, diaper bags, wall hangings, table toppers, book covers for journals, sewing kits and other ideas. We enjoyed seeing all she brought and certainly have some ideas on something new that we would like to make.

Mary Anne Howe announced the boutique made $661.00 at the show and then sold $97.00 from what did not sell at the show. Thank you, Mary Anne.

Jackie thanked all who helped at the demo table at the show.

Fat quarters were won by Jackie Peake, Wanda Mahn and Susan Davis. The color for next month is animal prints.

Door prizes were won by Nancy Murders, Nell Osbahr, Betty Lawson, Susan Davis, Kathy Hull, Meryl Black and Polly Orr.

Show and Tell was presented by: Brenda Williams, Wanda Mahn, Beth Wynn, Betty Smith, Wilma Blair, Oleta Looney, Clarice Marker, Diane Case and Jackie Peake.

Meeting was adjourned.
